Key Insights :-

- Customers aged 26–40 form the core customer base and drive most revenue
- Evening is the peak transaction period, indicating higher activity after working hours
- Urban locations like Mumbai, Bangalore, and Delhi dominate customer concentration
- New customers form the majority, but retention strategies are needed to increase loyalty
- Loyal customers, though fewer, represent high-value users and should be prioritized

Business Recommendations :-

- Focus marketing efforts on the 26–40 age group for higher ROI
- Introduce loyalty programs to convert new customers into regular users
- Target high-activity time periods (evening) for promotions
- Expand services in high-performing cities
